NEWSPAPERS.

A NOTHER LITERARY PEAST FOR SUNDAY MORNING. BURLESQUE-ESSAY-FEUILLETON

The many thousands interested in the prowess of the immortal and unconquerable MACKEREL BRIGADE, now occupying the captured city of Paris, near Richmond, are informed that the occupying the captured city of Paris, near Richmond, are informed that the "SUNDAY TABLE-TALK" of te-morrow's SUNDAY MURCURY will include another letter from the "American Russell"—in other words, from ORPHEUS C. KERR, who celebrates the unparalleled wisdom of Captain Villiam Brown. Eskevire, in his administration of justice as Provisional Governor of Paris; the uncaampied proclamation by which the Southern Union men were conciliated, and most wise decision of Villiam in the case of Planter versus Contraband. Likewise, a graphic illustration of the "Conservative" movement in Congress, and a few remarks concerning the free code of "Bologna." The "Table Talk" will also contain a brilliant musical and social Femilieson a la Francaise, a genial Essay on an entertaining subject, elegant poetry, &c., &c.
